Night at The Village

*A Night of Inspiration.
Pass it On...*

On Monday, October 26th, 2009 The Women's Conference will present Night at The Village

Night at The Village will once again transform the Long Beach Convention Center's exhibit hall into over 160,000 square feet of inspiring interactive experiences, offering attendees the chance to meet, mingle and mix with the best -- the best speakers, the best shopping, the best chefs, and the best authors. Ten thousand women are expected to attend. This is a night to share with your girlfriends, your daughters, your mothers, or your colleagues away from work. It's a night to be inspired, have fun and give back while you're doing it. Of course, men are welcome too!

Night at The Village will feature:

- ✦ A main stage program featuring inspirational talks from the country's most sought after speakers including Maria Shriver, chef Paula Deen, fitness expert Jillian Michaels and additional surprise guests.
- ✦ Book signings by an amazing list of NYT best-selling authors including Caroline Kennedy, Dr. Mehmet Oz, Sue Monk Kidd, Mario Lopez, Greg Mortenson, Maria Shriver and other best-selling writers.
- ✦ "Stagettes" where you can hear Kathy Ireland, Seane Corn, Victoria Jackson and many others on topics relating to mind, body & spirit.
- ✦ Shops and entrepreneurs selling unique products, including clothing, jewelry, beauty and environmentally friendly items, along with wonderful gift ideas and great give-aways!
- ✦ The Women's Conference WE Programs. Get involved and join us in empowering women. Learn more about these in the Village.
- ✦ Live music, food samples and fun gourmet cafes!

Doors open at 4pm. Tickets are $25.00 in advance, $30.00 at the door.

Proceeds from Night at The Village benefit the WE Programs of The Women's Conference.
